16 Clearview Dr, Glass House Mountains

If you're looking for something with the soul of the Queensland country, 16 Clearview Drive is the place to stake your claim.

Character-filled home amid the mountains

If you're looking for something with the soul of the Queensland country, 16 Clearview Drive is the place to stake your claim. This colonial classic exudes the kind of character that makes a house feel like a home, across a generous 2000m2 block.

Spend your summers on the swathes of verandah space wrapping the house, and your winters gathered around the fireplace in the lounge room.

A spacious kitchen with walk-in-pantry will satisfy the keenest of cooks. All three bedrooms have been fitted with ceiling fans and air conditioning, with two also featuring walk-in-wardrobes.

Outside, established trees already provide shade and fruit, but otherwise the yard is a blank canvas. What garden masterpiece would you create?

The double garage is easily accessible at the front of the block, but the back shed offers a space to park a third vehicle or boat, with plenty of room to spare for a workshop or storage. Three large water tanks service the house.

All this is two minutes from the Glasshouse Mountains township, and less than an hour from the Brisbane CBD. Buyers will be lining up to fall in love with this home, so call Adam today to register your interest.
